The Laundry House

Originally built in 1804, The Laundry House has undergone a number of transformations since it functioned as the estate's laundry, although none quite as transformational as its recent renovation into an impressive blank canvas event space with charming rustic interiors and modern touches.

Accommodating up to 100 seated guests, The Laundry House, with its beamed roof, flagstone tiled floor, and beautiful outdoor terrace, is available either alongside or independently from the main house, and is the perfect venue for private events and dinners.

Your Own Private Chef

From hearty Scottish breakfasts, luxury fridge fills, wood fired pizzas, and Asado grills to ten-course tasting menus with paired wines and craft beers, our culinary partners, The Edinburgh Catering Company, will manage all of your food and drink requirements throughout your stay.

To ensure you enjoy world-class produce from across Scotland, our trusted local chefs will tailor a list of menus according to the exact tastes and requirements of your group.

Accommodation

Gilmerton House comprises thirteen well-appointed double bedrooms, with ten bedrooms in the house itself, and an additional three double bedrooms in Gilmerton Lodge – a charming Victorian cottage within estate grounds.

From our billiards room, roaring log fires, spacious bathrooms, and farmhouse kitchen where you can help yourself to a cup of locally roasted Hometown coffee, Gilmerton House is a golfer's ideal private clubhouse.
